

Plan Map

16 holes still to be reported from 2025 – continuous news flow

Five rigs are operating and one additional rig is mobilizing. Freegold is scaling up the 2026 program to accelerate target testing and follow-up across priority areas.

This expanded drill capacity is expected to advance the planned drilling to provide additional infill, geotechnical, and metallurgical material in support of the pre-feasibility study ("PFS").

